VISITORS

Guests. When the ship is in port, passengers may invite guests for meals against payment. Prior arrangements with the Purser or Chief Steward are requested.

Luggage

As the Company does not take any responsibility for loss of, or damage to, luggage however caused, passengers are strongly advised to take out a Comprehensive Policy of Insurance.

Luggage should be labelled clearly and contain personal effects only. Individual pieces must not exceed 2 cwt. or 4 feet in length.

Items such as furniture, pianos, carpets, radiograms, washing machines, domestic refrigerators, wines and spirits, cannot be accepted as luggage and arrangements should be made for their shipment as "cargo". The Company reserves the right to refuse the carriage of such items, unless offered as cargo with freight prepaid. An early application should be made for reservation of space.

Cabin Baggage. The dimensions of trunks/suitcases taken into the cabins should not exceed 3'x1'9"x1'3". As the height of beds varies in the different ships and cabins, these dimensions do not imply that the trunks can be placed under the beds. No items may be placed in the corridors.

In addition to cabin baggage each adult passenger is allowed up to 40 cubic feet of baggage, free of charge, in the Baggage Room/Hold. Children's allowance is in proportion to the fare paid.

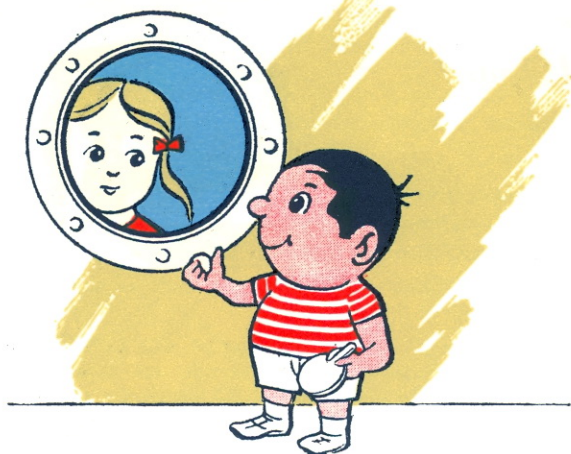

The "General Cargo" tariff rates will be charged on baggage in excess of these allowances.

Baggage Room (only for trunks and suitcases) will be opened daily for the convenience of passengers, except on Sundays or when the ship is in port. Cases, crates, barrels, hessian-wrapped packages, etc., will be stowed in the ship's holds and will not be accessible during the voyage.

Clothes. Make sure you pack adequate clothing for all weather conditions en route.

GUIDE BOOKS

Before arrival at ports of call, guide and information booklets and brochures are distributed free of charge.

will give you a booklet, "Baby's Wishes", to be completed with special details of feeds.

Children's Meals. Children under 12 years of age take their meals at a separate sitting in the dining room.

On the passenger vessels, a stewardess is available to supervise children during their meals, and between 1.00 p.m. and 5.00 p.m. when at sea. Parents are invited to discuss their children's food requirements with the Chief Steward who will do everything possible to meet their wishes.
